President Martin says he is highly appreciative of the honor paid him by his fellow baseball men, and that he will strive to make the Southern the best minor in the country. He is highly elated over the fact that the session just closed was the most harmonious gathering the Southern has ever had, and feels that as he starts out he has the hearty support and co-oneration of every club owner in making the Southern a minor second to none.

persons in the audience believed Morris slipped and fell as the blow was visible only to those close to the ringside.

The men started in with a brisk exchange of short labs after breaking from the first clinch Demisee rushed Morris near the ropes and its was during the infighting then that the knockeut blow was struck. Morris did not regain consciousness for four minutes. Dempsey was a favorite in the betaing, as high as five to one being offered that he would knockant the Oklahoman and six to five that Morris would not lagt three rounds. Remy Dorr, of New Orleans, was referee.

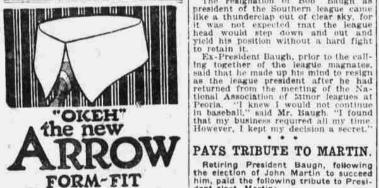

The fight was held in an open air arena before about 7,000 persons.

The promoter who staged tonight's fight stated he expected to match Dempsey and Billy Miske early in January.

Dempsey received $4,000 and Morris $1,250 for the fight.

Headquarters Coming Here.

The election of President Martin means that Southern league headquarters will be located in Memphis, and the changes will be made as soon as possible. The headquarters of the Dixie major have long been in Birmingham, but just as soon as it can be done the papers and records of the league will be transferred to Memphis, where the business of the league will be taken up and handled for the good of the league and the game.

There were many changes made at the meeting yesterday. One of the most radical steps taken was the adoption of an agreement whereby no club shall carry more than seven class A bail players, the other 50 per cent to be composed of class B or lower.

Thus we introduce Thomas (Speedmap) Walsh. The huttling fistic authority, the manager of Thomas Wilson Moore, better known to the ring gathering as Memphis Pal Moore, was much elated. nating" Game.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—"Ty" Cobb, Detroit's great batter and outfielder, hopes to quit baseball. He so stated on his return from France, where he has served as a captain in the army. He had no intention at present, he said, of signing our again, although he admitted that baseball still had for him "a terrible fascination."

"I'm going down to my home in Augusta, Ga. and rest up for several months, said tobb. "I intend to break away from baseball. I'm tired of it. I've had 15 years of it, and I want to quit while I'm still good. There is the danger that the fascination of the game has its hold on me, but I shall make every effort to tear away from it and not sign with any cluh again.

"When I say this, I naturally presume that the release that the managers gave us last fall with its ten days' notice is binding and that they have no legal strings on me now. I hope so, at least.

"I've made no pians whatever ahead of my rest. I haven't a profession because I left school at I't to piay ball."

Cobb declared that the war had rejuvenated baseball and that "it's going to boom this season as it never has done before."

He explained that when the armistice was signed he had just finished his training and expected to be assigned to a division which would soon see "some real action," declaring that the American army "has the finest personnel on earth, with everyone on his toes and wide awake every minute." Cobb said that "a lot of that can be credited to baseball and its close association to the American boy." He added that "when my youngsters grow up all three of them are going to get army train-ing."
